Weekly Word Psalms 97:1-2, 6-7, 9

“Yahweh is king! Let earth rejoice, the many isles be glad! Cloud, black cloud enfolds him, saving justice and judgement the foundations of his throne. The heavens proclaim his saving justice, all nations see his glory. Shame on all who serve images, who pride themselves on their idols; bow down to him, all you gods!”

Faith Formation

May Jesus Christ, who show us the way to everlasting life, be with you!

Last Saturday, after the ordination of Priests for the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, the annual notice of priests assignment went out. Some priests moved to retirement, and others move to Senior Priest status. Senior Priest status means, he remains active as a priest without any administrative responsibilities. Other priests were reassigned to a new parish or ministry. Then there are our newly ordained priests who received their first priestly assignment. While this can be an emotional transition, not only for the priest, it can also be an emotional time for parishioners. Every year, these assignments come out around this time. The same thing happens with religious sisters, who will be assigned to a new ministry. And so you know I have not been reassigned. I remain with you, at least for the moment.

The Archdiocese has reappointed me to stay as a Regional Dean. I currently oversee fifteen parishes in my deanery, but with more responsibilities. I continue to be Pastor of both St. Cyprian and St. Ignatius Parishes as well as a Regional Dean, and a member of several Boards of Trustees. So, your prayers are requested by me, that I continue to have the strength and energy to do what God asks of me, my Archbishop, and all God's people within and outside of my parish and deanery.

We are quickly coming to the end of the season of Easter. Next Sunday, the universal church, will be celebrating Pentacost Sunday. As is our tradition, I encourage everyone to wear something red in honor of Pentecost Sunday. We join our prayers together as we await the coming of the Holy Spirit, who will then lead and guide us in faith and into the eternal kingdom of God.

Today we hear at mass how St. Stephen stood up for his faith. He is a true witness and disciple for the Lord. May we meditate on how we can be true witnesses and disciples of Christ.

Peace and Blessings, Msgr. Britto

Communion to the Homebound— If any homebound parishioner is in need of Holy Communion and a visit, please contact the rectory.

CATHOLIC CHARITIES APPEAL

The Archdiocesan Catholic Charities appeal has begun. The appeal is very important to many Archdiocesan organizations and parishes, including our parish. Please be very generous with Appeal. Our parish is a recipient of this goal. The goal this year: $4,323. Let's try to reach our goal this year!

Question of the Week—"What can I do for my neighbor to show the love that God has for me?"

Month of Mary, Mother of God:

If you wish to place flowers, or roses, at the Mary shrine in honor of someone special during this month of May, please do so. Ask the blessed Mother to intercede for your intentions.

COME HOLY SPIRIT PRAYER

Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love. Send forth your Spirit and they shall be created. And You shall renew the face of the earth.

O, God, who by the light of the Holy Spirit, did instruct the hearts of the faithful, grant that by the same Holy Spirit we may be truly wise and ever enjoy His consolations, Through Christ Our Lord, Amen

TRAGEDY HITS AGAIN

Once again our country became the centerpiece of personal attacks with the outcome of deaths and injuries. The shooting in Texas at an Elementary School by an 18 year old has taken stage . This senseless act is becoming too common and complacent. People, including the young and seasoned should be able to live their life in peace and harmony. Mental illness is becoming more and more an issue. The use of guns has gone out of control. Whether gun violence occurs in other states, or in our own neighborhood, it goes against God's commandment of love and respect for people. We pray for all victims of gun violence, their families and communities. And let us also pray for those who commit these violent acts of crime.

Prayer to St. Michael—Saint Michael, the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into Hell Satan and the other evil spirits who prowl about the world for the ruin of souls. Amen.

Parish Life

PARISH CAMPAIGN

With much discussion with the Parish Council and Parish Staff, it was agreed that we would begin a special project to renovate the convent. For the past several years, it was used for meetings and the PREP Program. The convent was recently named the St. Katharine Drexel Parish Center. It is now in dire need of repair. A special committee is developed to oversee this project and campaign.
